Scott,

My client agrees to give you until Jan. 11 to file the Answer. We do not consent to any extension to file a motion.

My client has waited nearly 2 years to resolve this dispute. It's time to move forward.

The settlement conference is Feb. 13. We believe that, in order to facilitate settlement talks, we need an Answer to the Second Amended Complaint, and are willing to give you a week's extension to file an Answer. Any further extension will interfere with the preparation that we both need to do prior to the settlement conference. By Jan. 11, you will have had the Second Amended Complaint for 12 weeks, which is adequate time to develop an Answer.

Victoria

Victoria:

I will be filing a motion to extend my time to respond to your complaint from January 4, 2008 until January 30, 2008. I assume you oppose. Let me know if my assumption is incorrect.

Scott
